

Resource 2

Look at the resource below, where some people share their opinions about leadership.

Do you think anyone can be a leader?

I think anyone can become a leader if they want to but they may not necessarily be a good leader and if they are not, they may not stay in that leadership position for long.

Kinza

Not everyone can be a leader. If you cannot be organised, confident, resilient, honest or have vision, good communication skills and be able to motivate others, then being a leader is not for you!

Bartek

I think anyone can be a leader if they want to be. You can learn to develop the skills that will help you to become a leader. However, the more people you lead, the trickier I think it is to be seen as a good leader in everyone's eyes.

Jasmine

Not everyone wants to be a leader. Sometimes people end up having to lead even if they don't want to!

Logan

Do you think everyone will agree that someone is a good leader? Why?

Can you think of a time when someone has had to lead when they didn't want to?
